GENERAL INFORMATION

The Concierge Service acts as an intermediary, connecting Clients with referenced suppliers and service providers, except for the restaurant, bar, and pool services offered by Maison Pic. Thus, the Concierge Service can be mandated by the Client to act on their behalf and for their account in ordering products and services.

Any order of products or services by the Client is subject to a reservation with the Concierge, which may take the form of a quote submitted for the Client's prior approval. The validation of this product or service order is carried out between the Client and the partner concerned. The order of products or services may be subject to direct payment to the Concierge, included in the bill, unless otherwise agreed or stipulated.

The terms and conditions of reservation and cancellation are communicated directly to the Client according to the nature of the product or service ordered, upon reservation by the Concierge and by all means by the partner concerned. It is specified that cancellation fees may be charged to the Client, under certain conditions, except in cases of force majeure.

The Concierge Service is bound by an obligation of means for the services it performs and cannot be held responsible for the acts, errors, delays, negligence, failures, or malfunctions of any kind of the partner suppliers and service providers. Any action, claim, or demand relating to the provision of products or the performance of services must be brought directly by the Client against the supplier or service provider concerned. The Pic Concierge may facilitate the Client's procedures in this regard, if necessary.

In the context of the client relationship and for the purposes of service provision and/or product order carried out with the Concierge Service, Clients acknowledge and accept that personal data concerning them, such as names, first names, and contact details collected by PIC, may be transmitted to the partners in charge of the reserved service or product, and only for this purpose. Clients may at any time exercise their right of access, modification, or deletion by contacting the Concierge Service directly.

These conditions relating to the Concierge Service are governed by French law. Any dispute not resolved amicably may be brought to the competent courts of Lyon.
